COPYRIGHTS OF GSF NAV ON ANDROID TRAINING MANUAL
AND THE ASSOCIATED NUMERIC DATA

The "purchaser" term refers to the person who acquires the ArcGIS training document and digital data.

The "document" term of the agreement includes the paper or digital ArcGIS training document, extraction thereof or a modified version in all or part of the data.

The "data" or "digital data" term of this agreement includes digital data extraction thereof or a modified version in all or part of the data.

Reproduction in whole or part, by any means whatsoever, of this document or its parts including the digital data is prohibited.

A copy of xerography, photography, film, magnetic or other, is an infringement of the penalties provided by the law of 11 March 1957 and 3 July 1995 on copyright protection.

The paper and digital data cannot be transmitted to others, whether or not a member of the same organization as the purchaser.

The paper and digital data cannot be used to transmit training, presentation, or any other means to other people.

Digital data cannot be analytically or commercially processed.

If the terms contained in this agreement are not met, the purchaser agrees to indemnify Groupe Système Forêt for equivalent losses.

Groupe Système Forêt cannot be sued by the purchaser for any errors that would be present in the document or in the digital data.
